

Friends of Aine

Center for Grieving Children & Families

Book List for Young Children

Wherever You Are My Love Will Find You (2010) 	Nancy Tillman	Love is with you wherever you are
Something Very Sad Happened (2016) 	Bonnie Zucker	Written for toddlers to explain death with reassurance that love remains after death. (Contains suggestions to parents and caregivers as well)
The Goodbye Book (2015)	Todd Parr	Saying goodbye
The Invisible String (2000)	Patrice Karst	Love keeps us connected
I Miss You (2000)	Pat Thomas and Lesley Harker	Understanding loss and feelings
The Memory Box (2017)	Joanna Rowland	Remembering our special person
Honey Bear Died (2011)	Jennifer E. Melvin	Introduction to death (ages 3-5) Opportunity to personalize
Sometimes I Feel like a Storm Cloud (1999)	Lezlie Evans	Exploring feelings
The Brightest Star (1998)	Kathleen Maresh Hemery	Exploring feelings and finding comfort
A Story for Hippo (2000)	Simon Puttock	Keeping the memory of a cherished person alive
The Color Monster (2012)	Anna Lienas	Encourages discussion of feelings
Turned Upside Down: A Flip Book (2013)	Teana Tache	Guides children through the grieving process; written as conversation between child and important person
Sun Kisses, Moon Hugs (2012)	Bernardo Schaefer	Love lasts forever